Hi Jessica,

Sorry for the delay – I had forgotten that today is a federal holiday, so that made yesterday extremely overwhelmed with meetings and packing! So, here, with some delay are the slides and my bio, if you need it.

Let me know if you need anything else. If you need to reach me, feel free to give me a call at Personal Phone / Ex. 6

Tina

Dear Dr. Bahadori,
I am writing to provide call-in information for your presentation to the API Toxicology Group on Friday, November 10, 2017, from 11 AM -12 PM Eastern.

The call-in information is:

Personal Phone / Ex. 6

If you could please send any slides (Power Point) or other presentation materials that you may have to me no later the 12 Noon on Thursday, that would be helpful. (We will have participants on-site and calling in, and I need to distribute any materials ahead of your talk so that they can follow along).

If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know.
We looking forward to your presentation.

Best regards,
Jessica

Dear Dr. Bahadori,

That would be appreciated.

Within the 1 hour period, we would like to budget some time (15-20 minutes) for discussion and for our Members to ask questions.

I will solicit questions from our members and will do my best to get those questions to you ahead of the meeting.

I have attached a document that explains the remit of the Toxicology Group and a roster of names and affiliations.

Thanks, Jessica. This is fine. If you don't have a DC-based in person meeting planned in the future, let's just go with a teleconference meeting on the 10th. Just please provide a roster of your committee members/affiliations and something that tells me what the remit of the committee is – I will work it out from there.

Dear Dr. Bahadori,

If a face-to-face meeting with the participants would be more comfortable for you, we would be happy to have to you come out to Dayton, OH and speak in person. Unfortunately, we cannot offer to pay for your travel. Would a face-to-face meeting be possible under these circumstances?

Best regards,
Jessica

Hmm, OK. I guess I should have checked first. I am not a big fan of making blind conference call presentations to a group I don't know at all. It would have been different if I had met the group once before. Can you please send me a list of your members and the remit for the group?

Dear Dr. Bahadori,

We are delighted that you are able to accept our invitation. The meeting will actually be held in Dayton, Ohio. Therefore, we will be providing a conference call line for you to phone in. (A teleconference may actually be a bit more convenient for you, as you will be packing that day). I will reserve the 11 AM -12 PM time lot for you, and will be providing an agenda with call-in information before the end of this week. At this time, it is uncertain that we will have webinar capabilities, and so any slides you might want to send in advance of the meeting would be greatly appreciated.

Best regards,
Jessica

Dear Dr. Ryman-Rasmussen,
I will be glad to meet with API's Toxicology Group on the 10th. As we will be packing on that day to move from VA back to DC, I am relatively meeting free. The 11 AM timeslot looks ideal, although I have flexibility and if your agenda needs tweaking I can likely make it work. Please let me know where the meeting will be held.

Thank you,

Tina

Subject: Invitation to Speak About IRIS Program: 10 November 2017 American Petroleum Institute Meeting

Dear Dr. Bahadori,

I called your office number and was advised that email is the best way to contact you. My name is Jessica Ryman-Rasmussen. I am a Scientific Advisor at the American Petroleum Institute (API). Our Toxicology Group is having a meeting on Friday, November 10, 2017. API wishes to invite you to speak (via teleconference) to our membership about US EPA's IRIS program. Topics of interest would be current IRIS assessments, any changes being incorporated into the IRIS Program, and plans for future IRIS assessments.

We would be happy to schedule up to 1 hour for a presentation. We currently have the following times available:
11 AM-12 PM (Eastern)
12 PM-1 PM (Eastern)
1 PM - 2 PM (Eastern)

If you (or a designee) are available and wish to accept this invitation, please respond with preferred time(s) and I will be happy to put you (or your designee) on the schedule.

Best regards,

Jessica Ryman-Rasmussen, PhD, DABT
